THE RECIPE FOR NO REGRETS

MAY 18, 2025 | NO JOYLESSNESS

1. Think about your typical day. On average, how many people do you interact with who are NOT a family member, friend, or co-worker?
2. Read about the variety of people that Paul (and Luke) interacted with in Acts 21:1-11. What intentional choices do you think Paul must have made in order to have that many connections in so many different towns?
3. Now that you see the high number of people who were loosely connected to Paul, how does your number of acquaintances compare?
4. What is it that keeps you from being more intentional and open to connection with the casual interactions in your life?
5. What is one intentional choice you could make to increase your casual connection? (Think of your own answer, or choose one from the slide in this weekend's message)
  - a. Prioritize the "in-person" connection
  - b. Smile and make eye contact
  - c. Be curious, but keep it light.
  - d. Be open to the unexpected positive.
